Åsas work has over the years been shown in numerous galleries and exhibition halls in Sweden and abroad. Her work has also been exhibited in the Swedish Embassy in Tokyo.

Art philosopher Björn G Lindahl speaks about her work:

“Every new encounter with Åsa Peck’s art offers new angles of incidence. Along with their character changing and deepening every speck of what we take for granted will be challenged. Her work makes the personal expand. Through the subjective memories she portrays a glimpse of a larger context is revealed. This is a liberating feeling.”
